

Career Websites

<http://www.bridges.com>

Bridges•Plan•Explore•Acheive

Create a new student user if do not have a bridges account

Site ID is 0019326

Password is bridges

Click CHOICES EXPLORER for exploring career options

Click CHOICES PLANNER for connecting careers to programs and schools

<http://library.coin3.com>

Coin Career Library

Enter the site ID as LIL14521

Enter the User Login as 610008

Click on Exploration Center (or any of the colored tabs for more information)

Click on Occupation Search or Quick Search on the left side menu

Click on Occupations

Select an occupation and click display occupation

<http://careercruising.com/>

Career Cruising

Username is centralia

Password is careers

Click Explore Careers

Click on one of the 4 ways to search careers

<http://www.ilworkinfo.com/icrn.htm>

IL Department of Employment Career Resource Network

Click on CIS (Career Information System) section (If login at school will not ask for username)

Username is centralia

Password is orphans The create your own Portfolio

The Illinois Department of Employment has setup this free service for students, parents and educators.

<http://www.workforceinfo.state.il.us/>

Career Click

This site provides information on approximately 700 occupations in Illinois. The occupations are divided into sixteen Career Clusters. You'll find descriptions, salaries, Illinois and sub-state employment levels, employment forecasts, and other information that helps to clarify career choices.

<http://www.bls.gov/oco/home.htm>

Occupational Outlook Handbook

The Occupational Outlook Handbook is a nationally recognized source of career information, designed to provide valuable assistance to individuals making decisions about their future work lives. Revised every two years, the Handbook describes what workers do on the job, working conditions, the training and education needed, earnings, and expected job prospects in a wide range of occupations.

<http://www.mycoolcareer.com/>

My Cool Careers

MP3 Interviews with people in many different professions. Also find self-assessments, career information, and college and financial aid info.

<http://jobstar.org/tools/career/spec-car.cfm>

Job Star Central

These sites are packed with information about planning your career. What kind of training or education is required? What can you earn? What kind of environment will you work in? What's hot? What's not? Some sites include personal stories from folks working in the field: how did they move (or stumble) into their current work situation? What advice would they give newcomers?

<http://www.careervoyages.gov/students-main.cfm>

Career Voyages

Provided by the U.S. Department of Labor: the ultimate road trip to career success.

<http://www.careereducationadvisor.com/>

Career Education Advisor

In a demanding job market, career education is a smart investment in your future. Browse and compare our helpful resource of career education colleges and career education schools. Shop programs by category or find schools in your state. Our online degree guide has detailed numerous online universities offering degrees in a number of our featured subjects. Also, be sure to check out our featured articles which are constantly being added.

<http://www.collegegrad.com/careers/index.shtml>

CollegeGrad.com

Understanding different careers is critical to job search success. Know what you want to do before you seek to find it. The career information at our site is based upon information from the Occupational Outlook Handbook and is the most comprehensive resource for occupational and career information available on the Internet.

http://www.acinet.org/acinet/select_occupation.asp?stfips=undefined&next=occ_rep America's Career InfoNet
Search careers and trends

<http://acrnetwork.org/students.aspx>

America's Career Resource Network

You can get a jump on your future by exploring your interests, finding out what careers they point to, and making a plan to get the education and training you need to pursue your chosen field.